Understanding Social Security

Make Social Security work for you. The Social Security eligibility rules are generally the same for everyone—but no one’s life, retirement goals, or financial needs are exactly the same. So before you retire, ask questions. When should you begin Social Security? Do you plan to keep working? And how can you be certain your essential expenses are covered? Attend this important event to learn about the Social Security strategies that may fit into your overall plan for creating lifetime retirement income with fixed or variable annuities. This seminar is most helpful to those ages 55–62.

You should carefully consider a variable annuity’s risks, charges, limitations, and expenses, as well as the risks, charges, expenses, and investment objectives of the underlying investment options. This and other information about Pacific Life are provided in the product and underlying fund prospectuses. These prospectuses are available from your financial professional or by calling (800) 722-4448. Read them carefully before investing.

Pacific Life refers to Pacific Life Insurance Company (Newport Beach, CA) and its affiliates, including Pacific Life & Annuity Company. Insurance products are issued by Pacific Life Insurance Company in all states except New York and in New York by Pacific Life & Annuity Company. Product availability and features may vary by state. Each insurance company is solely responsible for the financial obligations accruing under the products it issues. Variable insurance products are distributed by Pacific Select Distributors, LLC (member FINRA & SIPC), a subsidiary of Pacific Life Insurance Company and an affiliate of Pacific Life & Annuity Company (Newport Beach, CA). Variable and fixed annuity products are available through licensed third-party broker/dealers. Securities are sold by licensed registered representatives.
